

UCM Clinical Research Center Professional development hours

The University of Chicago Institute for Translational Medicine's Clinical Research Center (CRC) is offering professional development hours for students interested in Clinical Research nursing.

- ✓ CRC RN Shadowing
 - The student will be able to see the implementation of clinical research protocols if available.
 - Frequent blood sampling
 - Biological sample collections
 - Lab handling
 - IV Drug infusions
 - Dense phenotyping
 - The student may also have the opportunity to experience first-hand investigational therapies across a broad range of disease processes
- ✓ Attending:
 - Study Team In-services
 - CRC Operational Meetings
 - CRC protocol submission reviews
- ✓ Shadowing research nurse coordinators
- ✓ Meeting with various Principal Investigators of varying departments that may include and not limited to:
 - Nephrology
 - Pulmonary-Asthma and COPD
 - Kovler Diabetes Center
 - Infectious diseases
 - Sleep, Metabolism and Health Center (SMAHC)
 - The Microbiome Center
- ✓ Meeting with different players of the Clinical Research Operations Team
 - ITM-
 - Clinical Research Center
 - Clinical Research Center Nurse Manager

- Office of Clinical Research
- Institutional Review Board
- Clinical Research Support Office

Please contact Kathy Reilly, CRC Nurse Manager at 773-702-6977 or email kreilly@bsd.uchicago.edu for more information.