

EQUATR

ENHANCING QUALITY IN THE TRANSLATIONAL RESEARCH WORKFORCE CONFERENCE

A VIRTUAL EVENT

Thursday, April 28

8:30 AM to 1:00 PM CT

Friday, April 29

8:30 AM to 11:50 AM CT

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Quincy Byrdsong, EdD., CIP, CCRP, Vice Provost, Health Affairs, Lipscomb University

Phoenix Matthews, PhD., Professor of Clinical Psychology, Associate Dean for Equity and Inclusion, and the Helen K. Grace Diversity Scholar, College of Nursing, University of Illinois Chicago (UIC)

Plenary Panel Session: Patient Advocacy in Clinical Research

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon Completion of this session, participants should be able to:

1. Examine the impact of major trends and forces in the Clinical Research Enterprise.
2. Discuss strategies on transitioning diversity and inclusion efforts to equity and justice efforts and the deliverables which should be associated with this transition.
3. Illustrate the inclusion of sexual and gender minorities in clinical trial research.
4. Examine patient advocacy in research.

CONTACT HOURS

This continuing nursing education activity is under review by the Northwestern University Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute. Provider approved by the State of California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number CEP 15198. Participants must attend the sessions in full to receive contact hours.

Register at bit.ly/EQUATR-2022 — The cost is $50. Registration closes April 22
There are no refunds unless the event is canceled before it begins.

This 2022 virtual event is presented by:

